

City of Madisonville

Occupational Tax

Minimum Occupational License (Business License) must be purchased from the City of Madisonville, KY, and from Hopkins County Fiscal Court.

This license is required for any enterprise, activity, trade, occupation, profession, or undertaking of any nature conducted for gain or profit.

This includes all brick and mortar, online sales, and mobile vendors.

If the organization is non-profit, they are not required to obtain a business license. They are required to complete the application to set up an account for remitting local taxes.

The fee for an Occupational License for the city is 25.00. This is an annual fee.

The license expires on 03/31 of every year. It can be deducted from the Net-Profit Return at the end of the filing year. The fee for an Occupational License for the county is 15.00. This is a one-time fee.

If a person receives 1099 for doing work in the City of Madisonville. They are considered an independent contractor and must apply for a business license.

Transient Merchant or Business License is a business license for any person, partnership, corporation, or other entity passing through the city temporarily for the purpose of conducting trade, occupation, or profession in general for again or profit which involves buying, selling, or exchanging of goods or services.

The fee is 100.00 yearly which requires no net-profit return to be filed.

City and County Applications can be found on our websites.

Madisonvilleliving.com

Hopkinscounty.ky.gov

All information can be found on either website.